1. OCI reported on the Soviet ship Khimik Zhetenski which is believed to have arms and is due to arrive in Cuba Tuesday or Wednesday of next week. There will undoubtedly be requirements to obtain coverage and determine the nature of its cargo.

2. There are evidences of Soviet-Cuban interest in Cayo Frances, an island off the north coast of Cuba (see Bulletin for today). DCI interested in considering whether low-level coverage is needed to ascertain the extent of this activity.
ACTION - SA/DD/R-DD/I.

3. I reported on the resignation of [REDACTED] and expressed a strong requirement to reach agreement on the functions of this organization. After the meeting, this was discussed briefly with the Executive Director who now has the papers. He will raise the question with General Carter.
